28 Days - Kool

you want so much for everyone to like you for who you really are but you care about it so much you won't be yourself cause I know you feel so much better than that and I know you would not have to let someone else do this bullshit to you what I want to know is why you let those fucking wankers talk to you like that what makes you think they are so cool

what makes you think they are so cool
what makes you think they are so cool
what makes you think they are so cool
so cool

is it because for them everything seems to go so well not like you because you struggle for everything like hell let me tell you I respect that because it's easy when it's easy it's easy when it's easy

when it's easy
when it's easy

what makes you think they are so cool
what makes you think they are so cool
what makes you think they are so cool i'm so, so very cool i'm so, so very...
cool
